"Sounds and scents swirl in the evening air," wrote Charles Baudelaire in Harmonie du soir, evoking the intoxicating passions simmering beneath the decorous facades at the dawn of La belle Epoque. An elegant private salon in the heart of Manhattan perfectly symbolizes this contrast between intimate and effusive, subtle and vibrant, fleeting and enduring. Renowned chef Eric Ripert will create expressly for this special occasion a seasonal, 4-course gastronomic journey across France's epicurean seascape. Our internationally-acclaimed Music from Copland House ensemble will pair Chef Ripert's exquisite Carte du soir with a scintillating musical menu of works by Claude Debussy, Maurice Ravel, Gabriel Faure, Ned Rorem, Marc Blitzstein, and Daron Hagen. Please Join us at Le Bernardin Privé for a memorable evening celebrating culinary and musical harmonies.
